

ACTIVITIES: ACCAS

1st ACCAS Drama Festival

The schools members of ACCAS, Association Columbian and Caribbean American Schools, presented their first Theater Festival in the Instituto Dominicano-American Auditorium, Patrick Hughson. On Friday, 17 of March, 2006, Dr Thelma Camarena welcomed the schools to this magnificent event. Mr. Jack Delman, ACCAS president, accompanied the event with encouraging words, stimulating artistic and creativity in the participants. The Festival included three workshops along with the presentation by the schools of:

Saint Michael presented “Cinderella”,

MC School presented “Grease”

Carol Morgan presented “The Disappearance of Daniel Hand”,

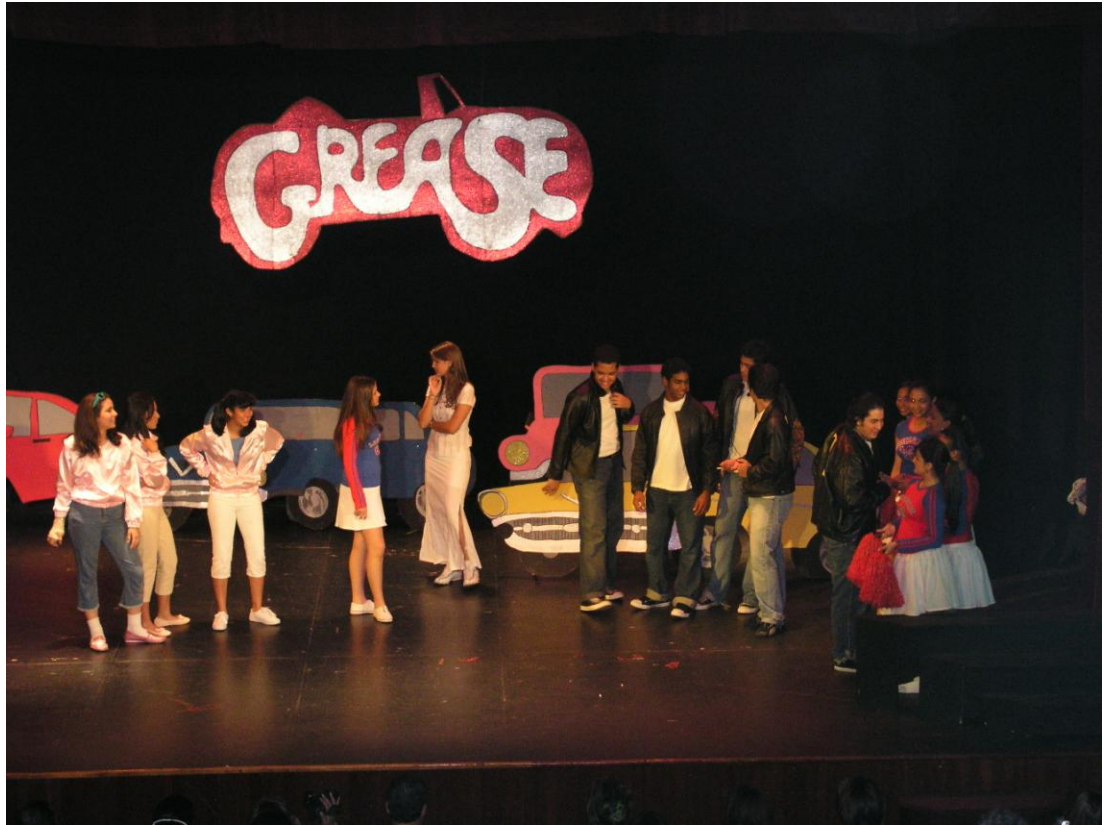

Santiago Christian School presented “Alice in Wonderland”

Colegio Dominicano-Americano presentó “PROOF”,

Below we are including some scenes:

Saint Michael presented “Cinderella”,

MC School presented “Grease”

Carol Morgan presented “The Disappearance of Daniel Hand”,

Santiago Christian School presented “Alice in Wonderland”

Colegio Dominico-Americano presented “PROOF”,

Scenes from the play presented by Colegio Dominicano-Americano "PROOF"

Scene from "Proof" where the emotions ran high.

Colegio Dominico-Americano presented “PROOF

ACCAS THEATER FESTIVAL

Promotes and stimulates young minds, by giving them the opportunity to expose and develop their innate creativity and in the process help them socialize and become involved in an artistic environment. It sets the stage for cultural exchanges to take place within the academic safe net of the schools.